Beyond the Catalog

The Faculty Resources function is designed to aid Faculty and Staff navigate the Curriculum and Catalog process. Click the “Faculty Resources” tab on ualr.edu/catalogs to get access to resources for updating programs and courses and for making changes to the Undergraduate and Graduate catalogs.

The Undergraduate Catalog, Graduate Catalog, and Law School Curriculum webpages provide information about all of our degree programs. If you don't know what degree you want to pursue, the catalogs also contain a lot of information that can assist you with that decision. These university publications are updated every year. They serve as a centralized location for various campus policies, admission standards, financial aid programs, as well as other helpful information that will help you make a smooth transition to college life.

How to Use the Catalog

The new UA Little Rock Catalog website offers convenient tools to help undergraduate and graduate students quickly locate and track details for degree programs, degree requirements, curriculum, and courses.

Features of the online catalog include:

- Drop-down menu for selecting the desired publication. Undergraduate and Graduate catalogs can be accessed all in one place.
- Publication Search function where users can type their topic in the search box and click "Enter." Or select "Advanced Search" to narrow or expand search options by course, program, or academic unit and college.
- Course Search – search for individual course descriptions and information.
- Program Listings that include clickable course descriptions that expand for browsing or printing (and when clicked again, revert to list format).
- Convenient printing from the "print-friendly page" link on every page and "print course" link on every course.
- My Bookmarks function that allows users to add and track favorite information and to retrieve saved preferences.
- Archived copies of past catalogs accessible on the "Archived Catalogs" link on the catalog home page.
- The Icon legend – gives brief descriptions of catalog features that help you navigate the site.
- Share button where students can share information about courses and degree programs via Twitter and Facebook.
- Online Help section with more information on how to get the most out of the catalog site.

Curriculum Change Process

The UA Little Rock curriculum process begins with the faculty on the department level. Once approved at the department level each change requires the sequential approval of the college or school's undergraduate and/or graduate curriculum committees, college dean, the appropriate University-level council, the provost, the chancellor, and in some cases the University of Arkansas System and the Arkansas Department of Higher Education, and the Arkansas Department of Education (for Educator Preparatory Programs). Faculty: To introduce new curriculum or updates to current curriculum, choose the appropriate option below:

For additional help, please contact Catalog Support.

1. Selecting a Different Catalog BACK TO TOP

There may be more than one catalog available from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock system e-catalog Gateway at a time. If there is more than one, you will see a dropdown box toward the top of the page with the name of the current catalog. Clicking the dropdown box provides access to other available catalogs. Selecting an alternate catalog will load it into the Gateway. If you do not see the dropdown box, then only a single catalog is currently published.

You may add information from any of the available catalogs to your own personal Bookmarks. See below to learn more about Using the Bookmarks Feature.

2. Searching the Catalog BACK TO TOP

The Catalog Search (shown at the top of the navigation) allows quick retrieval of catalog content that matches your interests.

Click on the “Help” icon to get step-by-step instructions on navigating the catalog.
